

Crownhart of the industrial commission because it would put the health of the girls in danger. Why couldn't we have a moral cesspool removed?"

The next article will tell how Peter and John Hobbs, jr., received education, in their trades from the state without having their daily work interrupted.

LITTLE IRRITATIONS OF LIFE

